WHAT: Music - Music Night at The Hub with Sheri McHenry and The Bluegrass Band. You may have seen and heard Sheri in one of her concerts in the area, or a local function, or at The Basilica of St. Paul in Daytona, where she is a regular cantor (soloist). The former folk-singer from the Pacific Northwest, has traded in her guitar accompaniment for the versatility of keyboards, but the folk-singer roots can still be heard. Sheri will bring you a variety of favorite, and well-known songs about love and life from the '60's and 70's up to the present, including a couple of her own compositions and certainly her town song entitled "Myrna From New Smyrna", the tale of a local fisherman and a mermaid.

The evening will open with some numbers by a local Bluegrass group that meet for private jams regularly in town at a place they call the Bluegrass Barn. You will be well-entertained from the moment the show begins with their toe-tapping tunes right up to the closing number that Sheri and the Bluegrass Band have planned to do together and will invite everyone to join them in singing along. A fun evening in a unique venue and a great little town.
