WHAT/WHO: 1st Saturday Art Stroll from one end of Canal Street to the other, including over 75 artists represented at The Hub on Canal. Opening of the March exhibition featuring mixed media artist, Peggy Banks presents "The Art of Healing". Banks' work is composed of handmade paper using banana leaf fiber infused with dyed and marbled silks. The silk emerges through the paper creating undulating creases and folds and is superimposed on copper.

MISSION:

The Hub on Canal creates community by fostering art, education and a broad range of creative opportunities.

popular Flea Bitten Dawgs group returns with his original ballads, story songs and sundry ditties. Returning from his European tour, catch him at The Hub on Canal. David is a musician out of Saint Louis, Missouri who has toured extensively. A singer and guitar player, he also plays bass and, for the last six years, has had a mad love affair with the ukulele. His warm, mellow voice will be featured flowing over an eclectic collection of music from many decades and genres sprinkled with some originals. This show will be performed entirely on ukulele. Plan to come and be delighted!
