PR for The Hub on Canal - May 2017

WHAT/WHO: 1st Saturday Art Stroll from one end of Canal Street to the other, including over 75 artists represented at The Hub on Canal. Opening of the May exhibition featuring artist, Martha Jo Mahoney presenting an exhibition entitled Pure Intent. The exhibit features large shapes of color with multiple layers of paints to convey a calm, relaxed feeling through color, line, shapes, and movement. The artist generally begins with gestural drawings and obliterate and/or add to this. Her overall intent is to still the mind of the viewer and give a sense of peace of place. She feels the world is often a hectic place in which to live and when coming home to your sanctuary, you want to simplify your surroundings with art that comforts and slows down the mind from the outside world.... Martha Jo Mahoney's "intent" is "pure" in its purpose in these paintings. Food courtesy of Beachside Publix.
