Show Policies:

1. Artwork must be original work by the artist. No reproductions of other people's work will be accepted. Artist must have all necessary rights of use and reproduction. If any third party disputes member's claims of ownership, originality or copyrights The Hub on Canal will not mediate the dispute or become involved. The artwork at issue will be removed and returned to the entrant. No refund of entry fee will be provided.
2. Dimensions: 2D and 3D artwork will be accepted. 2D work cannot exceed 16" on any side including the frame. 3D work must fit on a 12" x 12" pedestal and not exceed 24" in height. Please note on your application if you need a pedestal, as supplies are limited.
3. Presentation: Artwork must be for sale. 2D work can be framed, on gallery wrapped canvas or on board. All 2D artwork must be wired for hanging. The center of the hanging wire is to be 2" from top of the work. Framed work should have a white mat and simple, neutral frame. Gallery wrapped canvases should have finished, painted edges. 3D work must be ready for presentation. All artwork must be properly labeled with the member's name, title of piece and price on the front and back. No diptychs or triptychs please.

4. It is recommended that all participating members attend the Opening Reception at The Hub on Canal on July 2 during 1st Saturday Gallery Walk from 4 to 7pm. There is a Members' Preview event on Friday, July 1 from 5:30 to 7pm that you're encouraged to attend as well.
2. All sales will be reconciled within a month of the show closing. Checks will be mailed or direct deposited to members for any sale proceeds, minus a 20% commission. Member should include legal name on submission, if different from working name.
3. All work must be picked up on Monday, August 1, between 10am and 4pm. The Hub on Canal is not responsible for damage incurred during storage to any work not picked up Monday, August 2. Any artwork not picked up within seven (7) days of the show closure will become the property of The Hub on Canal.
4. The Hub on Canal will make every effort to carefully handle and protect the work. However, The Hub on Canal cannot be held liable for damage to work or any personal injury sustained while participating in this exhibition.
5. The Hub on Canal is not liable for theft of any work displayed within the premises. The Hub on Canal will make every reasonable effort to maintain secure premises for our members' artwork. However, The Hub on Canal does not insure any artwork displayed. Artists are welcome to provide their own insurance.
